ARIZONA'S ONLY "TRIFT" STORE

Many comments have been made regarding the mis-spelling of our thrift store sign. The gentleman who painted the signs was a professional sign painter who had many years of experience. Unknown to the painter's comrades, he was terminally ill with a brain tumor. Perhaps this would explain the error.

The painting of the sign was the painter's donation to the Chapter on their move to newer and larger quarters. After careful consideration, the thrift store committee decided to leave the signs as painted. Shortly after completing the signs, the painter succumbed to his illness. In light of this, subsequent thrift store committees have allowed the sign to remain in memory of the painter.

A belated thanks to our comrade, Harold Seidel.
